

May Events in the Worship & Performing Arts Center

Tuesday, the 3rd @ 7:00pm— UWO String Student Ensemble sit back and enjoy the clear and melodious sounds of this wonderful ensemble! You won't want to miss this special performance by University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh students who will be here to share their talents.

Saturday, the 7th @ 2:00pm—Fox Cities Saxability Quartet This sax quartet will entertain you with a delightful variety of music that includes folk tunes, ragtime selections, classical selections, polkas and more! Any requests? Just ask as this group is sure to please with an extensive library of popular chart selections!

Tuesday, the 10th @ 2:00pm- Fox Valley Christian Academy Bell Choir

Thursday, the 11th @ 7:00pm- The Oshkosh Youth Choir With about 40 kids in grades 3-12, this talented group will be sure to sing their way into your heart! With music selections from the Broadway plays Hadestown and Tick, Tick.. BOOM, as well as from artists such as Ed Sheeran and Neil Diamond, this concert is guaranteed to be quite exciting!

Friday, the 13 @ 10:00am- Digital Lecture- The Laws of War, From the Middle Ages to Today Where did the laws of war come from, and do they work? Who enforces them? Have they had any impact at all on how most countries fight? In this lecture, Professor Hitchcock will survey the very idea that war could be constrained by rules. Beginning in the age of knights and mercenaries and carry the story up to the age of "total war" and the creation of the Geneva Conventions.

Monday, the 16th @ 3:00pm – Riverboat Rascal Ken Williamson "The Riverboat Rascal" is one of the most historic riverboat entertainers on the Mississippi and Ohio rivers. The diversity of his show ranges from old time sing-a-longs, bluegrass, and tributes to Carl Perkins, to Elvis, to Johnny Cash. In the course of the show, he alternates between tenor banjo, acoustic guitar, and five string banjo.

Thursday, the 19th @ 2:00pm – Berlin Senior Singers

Friday, the 20th @ 7:00pm - Encore! Handbell Ensemble Encore has entertained audiences since 2008 when they were established to promote the appreciation of hand bell music, provide quality musical performances, and to build a distinguished reputation in the art of handbell ringing. Tonight, their music selection will be featuring composers and arrangers from the Midwest.

Monday, the 23rd @ 3:00pm- Performance by Glen Navis sing along to a musical variety that ranges between Country Western, Polka, Folk and Gospel. Don't miss this performance by this versatile and talented vocalist and guitarist!

Friday, the 27th @ 3:30pm- Movie Presentation "Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo" In recognition of Memorial Day Weekend. In the wake of Pearl Harbor, a young lieutenant leaves his expectant wife to volunteer for a secret bombing mission which will take the war to the Japanese homeland.

