

July Events in the Arline L. Sitter Worship & Performing Arts Center

Monday, the 7th at 3pm Informational Session: Wisconsin POW Camps Bob Block, a member of the Oregon Area Historical Society, will present a fascinating program titled "Wisconsin POW Camps." Many are surprised to learn that Wisconsin was home to 39 prisoner-of-war camps during World War II, housing approximately 20,000 POWs. This presentation offers an engaging overview of POW camps across the U.S., with a special focus on those located in Wisconsin. Bob will share compelling stories of local residents who lived near the camps, worked alongside prisoners, and the POWs themselves. Informative, educational, and entertaining, this program sheds light on a little-known chapter of Wisconsin's wartime history.

Tuesday, July 8th at 3pm Informational Session: Scam & Fraud Awareness

Take the opportunity to learn about today's most common financial scams and how to protect yourself and your money. Guests such as your financial power of attorney or close family members are welcome to attend. This session will be provided by representatives from a local BMO bank.

Thursday, the 10th at 3pm Performance by TJ and Lynn The Duo of TJ & Lynn features Tim "TJ" Rulseh on acoustic guitar, electric guitar, and flute and Diane "Lynn" Rulseh on vocals and percussion. Their set list consists of popular Classic Rock, Blues/Jazz, Country Rock, and Oldies!

Monday, the 14th at 3pm Performance by 2/5's Party Band Enjoy a toe-tapping afternoon with the 2/5's Party Band, a dynamic duo rooted in the rich traditions of Wisconsin and German Polka. They bring familiar favorites to life with charm and energy. Their ever-growing repertoire includes classic swing and timeless country hits by legends like Willie Nelson, Patsy Cline, and Hank Williams. With lively rhythms and a fun, nostalgic vibe, this performance promises music that'll get you smiling and swaying along!

The Arline L. Sitter Worship and Performing Arts Center is equipped with a hearing loop.

Tuesday, the 15th at 3pm Movie: The Glenn Miller Story Step back into the swing era with this heartwarming musical biopic starring James Stewart as legendary bandleader Glenn Miller. Follow his rise from struggling trombonist to one of America's most beloved musicians, all while hearing timeless hits like In the Mood and Moonlight Serenade. With warmth, romance, and unforgettable music, this film is a nostalgic tribute to the power of perseverance and the magic of the big band sound.

Rating: G | Genre: Biopic/Drama | Length: 1 hour 53 minutes | Year: 1954

Monday, the 21st at 3pm Digital Presentation: Luxury on the Water– The History (and Future) of Cruising Welcome aboard for a fascinating journey through the history of ocean travel, from the first steamships in 1838 to today's modern cruise industry. This digital presentation explores the rise of ocean liners, the birth of leisure cruising, and the disasters that led to improved safety at sea. We'll trace the decline of traditional liner services and the evolution of cruising as we know it.

Tuesday, the 22nd at 3pm Performance by Janet Planet Join us for a spectacular afternoon featuring the music of the incomparable Janet Planet! Her ability to weave stories and music together makes for an incredibly enjoyable performance. She has been described as a “sultry vocalist with a vast repertoire of jazz, blues and standards” by New York Magazine! You are certainly in for a treat!

Wednesday, the 30th at 7pm Lily & Virginia Topolski and Steve Howard Join us for a heartfelt and uplifting performance by Lily & Virginia Topolski with Steve Howard, celebrating the beauty of traditional hymns. This special program features a blend of piano hymn solos and vocal selections, offering a peaceful and inspiring musical experience. Virginia's warm, expressive vocals are complemented by the exceptional piano talents of her sister Lily and their grandfather Steve. Together, they bring generations of musical talent to the stage in a moving tribute to faith and family.
