

July Events in the Arline L. Sitter Worship & Performing Arts Center

Monday, July 6 at 3pm Movie: National Treasure

An action-packed adventure that follows historian and treasure hunter Benjamin Franklin Gates as he races to uncover a legendary hidden treasure tied to America's founding history. Along the way, he must solve clues, outsmart rivals, and protect one of the nation's most important documents. Filled with mystery, humor, and exciting twists, this fast-paced film offers a fun mix of history and adventure.

Rating: PG | Genre: Adventure/Action | Length: 2h 10m | Year: 2004

Friday, July 10 at 3pm Green Lake Festival of Music: Gaudete Brass Quintet

Green Lake Festival of Music presents an engaging performance by Gaudete Brass, a talented quintet known for bringing energy, warmth, and expressive storytelling to brass chamber music. Blending technical excellence with audience connection, the ensemble delivers a program filled with both joyful and reflective moments.

Monday, July 13 at 3pm Digital Presentation: The Wright Brothers and the Race to be First

In the fall and winter of 1903, two ambitious engineering teams raced to achieve the first powered flight: the Wright brothers, Orville and Wilbur, and a rival team led by Dr. Samuel Langley and his assistant, Charles Manly. While history clearly records who succeeded, the deeper question is why. In this digital presentation, Smithsonian expert Paul Glenshaw uses rare images and early film to explore the real story behind this pivotal moment. The program reveals key lessons about innovation, collaboration, and perseverance that remain just as relevant today.

Tuesday, July 14 at 3pm Green Lake Festival of Music: Pianist Jonathan Mamora

Green Lake Festival of Music presents an afternoon of exceptional piano music featuring award winning pianist Jonathan Mamora. Known for his remarkable technical skill and expressive style, Mamora has performed internationally since the age of 13 and continues to earn recognition at major piano competitions around the world. Audiences can look forward to a captivating performance filled with artistry, passion, and musical brilliance

See back page for more events!

Thursday, July 16 at 2pm Informational Session: Scam and Fraud Awareness Presentation

Learn how to recognize and avoid common scams with guidance from the Oshkosh Police Department. Officer Kate Mann will discuss the latest fraud trends affecting our community and share practical tips to help protect your personal information and finances. Join us to stay informed and confident in preventing scams.

Monday, July 20 at 3pm Performance by Fox Sounds

Fox Sounds is a small group of women who love to sing barbershop style. Together, they enjoy blending their voices, creating rich harmonies, and sharing the joy of music with others.

Sunday, July 26 at 1:30pm Performance by This N' That

This N' That presents a wide variety of tunes that will be sure to get your toes tapping and memories coming back. With a rich, full sound and talented musicians, they bring familiar favorites to life in an engaging and lively performance.

Monday, July 27 at 3pm Digital Presentation: What is Money? From the Beginning to Bitcoin

Money is not what it used to be, as traditional dollars and coins now coexist with digital “aliens” like Bitcoin and Ethereum. Around the world, central banks are experimenting with digital currencies while volatile meme stocks challenge long-standing financial norms. In this timely presentation, Professor Frederick Kaufman examines how our basic understanding of money is being reshaped. Drawing on 40,000 years of history, he offers perspective on how we arrived at this moment and what may come next. He also reveals surprising parallels between modern cryptocurrencies and the earliest forms of money.

Friday, July 31 at 3pm Performance by Joe and Janice

Joe & Janice are full-time musicians, with more than 25 years each of experience, who have traveled throughout the Midwest to entertain at the finest clubs, festivals, casinos, and events. This duo performs rock & roll, country, big band, R&B, jazz, just about any kind of music for all occasions!

The Arline L. Sitter Worship and Performing Arts Center is equipped with a hearing loop.