

June Events in the Arline L. Sitter Worship & Performing Arts Center

Monday, June 1 at 3pm Digital Presentation: Watergate

Often called “The Scandal That Never Goes Away,” the Watergate scandal remains one of the most significant political events in American history. In this digital lecture, Professor Dan Breen explores how a break-in at the Watergate Hotel led to a national scandal, the resignation of Richard Nixon, and lasting changes in the way Americans view politics and power.

Monday, June 8 at 3pm Green Lake Festival of Music: V3NTO

Presented by the Green Lake Festival of Music, Chicago-based brass trio V3NTO delivers a dynamic and engaging performance rooted in connection and creativity. Known for reimagining overlooked repertoire and championing new works, the ensemble creates an accessible, high-impact musical experience.

Thursday, June 11 at 11am and 3pm Evergreen Singers Concert

The Evergreen Singers are excited to present their annual Spring/Summer Choral Concert. This is a very popular event, so The Evergreen Singers will perform at 11am and 3pm. The 11am concert will be open to Evergreen residents only. The 3pm concert will be open to residents, family, and friends.

Monday, June 15 at 7pm Jazz Classics with Joe Slyzelia Quartet

Jazz Classics with Joe Slyzelia Quartet features an engaging evening of timeless jazz standards brought to life with energy, talent, and expressive style. Joe’s dynamic presence leads the group through familiar melodies and rich, classic sounds. This program is perfect for both longtime jazz enthusiasts and anyone looking to unwind with great live music.

See back page for more events!

Monday, June 22 at 3pm Movie: Secretariat

Based on the inspiring true story of one of horse racing's greatest champions, Secretariat follows the journey of Penny Chenery as she takes over her family's struggling stable and helps raise a legendary racehorse. Filled with heart, determination, and unforgettable racing moments, the film celebrates perseverance, teamwork, and believing in the impossible.

Rating: PG I Genre: Sport/Drama I Length: 2h 3m I Year: 2010

Wednesday, June 24 at 3pm Green Lake Festival of Music: Avanti Piano Trio

Presented by the Green Lake Festival of Music, the Avanti Piano Trio features pianist Alissa Freeman, violinist Hillary Hempel, and cellist Hannah Wolkstein. Their program thoughtfully balances beloved classical repertoire with under-explored works, including selections by female composers. This concert offers both familiarity and discovery.

Monday, June 29 at 3pm Digital Presentation: The History of Children's Literature

From Aesop's fables and Mother Goose to Harry Potter and Where the Wild Things Are, children's literature has inspired readers for generations. This engaging digital lecture explores the history and lasting impact of beloved authors such as J. R. R. Tolkien, Dr. Seuss, Laura Ingalls Wilder, and Beatrix Potter, and how their stories continue to spark imagination and a love of reading.

Tuesday, June 30 at 7pm Performance by Glen Navis

Glen is a guitarist and vocalist who performs a wide variety of familiar favorites, taking requests from the audience throughout the show for an interactive and enjoyable musical experience.

The Arline L. Sitter Worship and Performing Arts Center is equipped with a hearing loop.