

How to register for LIR Membership

Go to <http://www.EvergreenOshkosh.com> and click on Learning In Retirement at the top of the page

You can also go directly to the Learning in Retirement page by typing <http://www.EvergreenOshkosh.com/learning-in-retirement> into your web browser or by scanning the QR code.

Once you are on the LIR web page scroll down to the orange Membership bar and click on it.

Once you have clicked on it, it will open up the dialog box. If you are a new member looking to register, click on where it says new members click here and it will take you to the new member registration.

If you are a returning member, click on returning member, and it will take you to the returning membership registration.

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the LIR website with links: About, Living Options, Rehab & Therapy, At Home Care, Evergreen Foundation, Careers, and Contact. Below this is a sidebar menu with 'ABOUT' and 'MEMBERSHIP' options. The main content area is titled 'MEMBERSHIP' and contains the following text:

Learning in Retirement (LIR) is a member-directed adult learning group. Every spring and fall, we offer a wide variety of courses for older adults—covering an array of topics in different formats and lengths.

To register for classes, you must be an active member of LIR. Membership is renewed annually, so even if you've participated in the past, you'll need to register each year to maintain access to programs.

Your LIR membership includes attendance at unlimited programs such as:

- Learning sessions led by experts in their fields
- Member-led interest and study groups
- Member-taught learning sessions
- Tours of local businesses and industries
- Opportunities to enjoy on- and off-campus performances (theater, music), and local cuisine (note: some events may include additional costs for tickets, admission, meals, or transportation)
