Friday, October 2nd at 3:30pm Caitlyn's Wedding: A Livestream Viewing

You are invited to celebrate the wedding ceremony of Caitlyn Scott, Life Enrichment Manager, through a special livestream viewing. Residents are invited to gather together and witness this joyous occasion as the happy couple exchanges vows and begins their new journey together. Love is meant to be shared, and Caitlyn is delighted to share this day with the Evergreen community.

Monday, October 5th at 3pm Digital Presentation: Unearthing the Hidden History of America's Cemeteries

Discover how cemeteries provide a fascinating window into American history, revealing stories about culture, religion, public health, war, art, and social change. This engaging digital presentation explores the evolution of burial grounds across the centuries, from the earliest colonial settlements to today's emerging concepts of digital remembrance. Along the way, you will gain a deeper understanding of how cemeteries reflect the people, values, and events that shaped our nation.

Tuesday, October 6th at 3pm Performance by Claudia Russell and Bruce Kaplan

Claudia Russell and Bruce Kaplan bring an engaging blend of Americana, folk, blues, jazz, and country influences to the stage. Expect beautifully crafted original songs, rich harmonies, and exceptional musicianship featuring guitar and mandolin. Claudia's expressive voice and heartfelt songwriting are complemented by Bruce's tasteful accompaniment, creating music that is both moving and memorable. Along the way, the duo shares warmth, humor, and entertaining stories from more than two decades of performing together.

Wednesday, October 7th at 3:30pm Musical Storytelling Presentation by Bill Jamerson

Michigan based singer/storyteller Bill Jamerson will present a program about the Civilian Conservation Corps, a federal works program created in the heart of The Great Depression. From 1933 to 1941, over 92,000 young men served in Wisconsin. The camps were run by the army with an average of 38 camps in operation each year. The enrollees were paid $1 a day with $25 sent home to their families each month. Dressed in uniform, Jamerson tells stories, reads excerpts from his book, shows a clip from his PBS film and sings original songs with his guitar. It's a nostalgic, fun-filled program with much laughter and many heartfelt stories. He has performed at CCC reunions around the country and at dozens of state and national parks. The program is as entertaining as it is important; as honest as it is fun.
